

People on the Move

Eric Walden has been promoted to Director of Domestic Marketing of MBB Helicopter Corporation. Walden's movement to this position comes after five years as the company's Regional Marketing Manager in the southeast. Walden has an extensive aviation background, including serving as Director of Operations for Midstate/Executive Helicopters in Atlanta, where he was responsible for 135 helicopter operations.

Ron Stevenson has been named Southeastern Regional Marketing Manager for MBB Helicopter Corporation. Working with Boeing Vertol prior to moving to MBB in 1981, Stevenson has had extensive experience in aircraft configuration planning and special equipment requirements. Formerly MBB's Manager of Marketing Services, he has worked with customers from each of the primary markets served by MBB, including EMS.

Walter "Reid" Griffin has been named South Central Regional Marketing Manager for MBB Helicopter Corporation. Griffin's aviation career began in the U.S. Army, where he spent ten years as a rotary wing aviator, flight instructor and flight examiner. Since then, he has been active as a pilot and manager of aviation operations. His most recent position was with Hermann Life Flight (Houston, TX), with whom he has worked since 1983.

Mike Lavoy has been appointed manager of Aerospatiale Helicopter Corporation's Factory Resale Division, a newly created department to be involved in the purchase, factory reconditioning, and resale of Aerospatiale helicopters. Lavoy will also continue in his position as National Marketing Manager for Canada.

Mike Richardson has been promoted to Marketing Manager at Aerospatiale Helicopter Corporation and will assist in the new Factory Resale Division. His 19 years of aviation experience include being Director of Maintenance for a helicopter operation, manager of a completion center refurbishing unit, technical representative for Aerospatiale, and owner of a helicopter maintenance company.

Normand Chevrier has been appointed to Marketing Manager for Canada at Aerospatiale Helicopter Corporation. Formerly with Viking Helicopters in Quebec, Chevrier brings 16 years aviation experience to his new position.
